RULES.

Extract from "An Act defining the Duties of State Librarian, and prescribing Rules for the Government of the State Library," passed April 9, 1850.

SECTION 3. Books may be taken from the State Library by the Members of the Legislature and its Officers during the sessions of the same; and at any time by the Governor and the Officers of the Executive Department of this State, who are required to keep their offices at the Seat of Government; the Justices of Supreme Court and Attorney-General; provided, that no person shall be permitted to take or retain from the Library more than two volumes of miscellaneous works at any one time.

SEC. 4. The Librarian shall cause to be kept a register of all books issued and returned at the time they shall be so issued or returned; and none of the books, except the Laws, Journals, and Reports, of this State, which may be taken from the Library by Members of the Legislature, or its Officers, during the session, shall be retained more than two weeks; and all the books taken by the Members of the Legislature, or its Officers of every kind, shall be returned at the close of the session.

SEC. 5. If any person injure or fail to return any books taken from the Library within the time prescribed in the foregoing section, he shall forfeit and pay to the Librarian, for the benefit of the Library, three times the value thereof, or of the set to which it belongs; and before the Controller shall issue his warrant in favor of any Member or Officer of the Legislature, or of this State, for his per diem allowance, or salary, he shall be satisfied that such Member or Officer has returned all books taken out of the Library by him, and has settled all accounts for injuring such books or otherwise.

SEC. 6. All fines and forfeitures accruing under and by virtue of this Act, shall be recoverable by action of debt before any Justice of the Peace or Court having jurisdiction of the same, in the name of "The People of the State of California," for the use of the State Library, and in all such trials, the entries of the Librarian, to be made as hereinbefore described, shall be evidence of the delivery of the book or books, and of the dates thereof; and it shall be his duty to carry the provisions of this Act into execution, and sue for all injuries done the Library, and for all penalties under this Act.

The Library is kept open every day during the sessions of the Legislature, from ten A. M. to eight P. M., and when the Legislature is not in session, daily, from ten A. M. to four P. M., Sundays and holidays excepted.
